Making a Menu

Check out these ideas for a week of healthy GO foods.

- Buy fruits and vegetables that are in season: they have a fresh, ripe flavor and are lower in cost.
- Make healthy vegetable soups in bulk for quick lunch or dinner meals.
- Use leftovers for other meals to save time and money.

LEAN & SPEEDY SUPPERS

Lean meats, poultry, and fish (like boneless, skinless chicken breasts or fish filets) are simple to prepare:

- Wrap fish in foil, sprinkle with lemon juice and seasonings, then bake at $350^{\circ} \mathrm{F}$ for about 15 minutes.
- Bake chicken breasts for about an hour after adding 2-3 tablespoons water to a baking dish and a sprinkle of your favorite spices.
- Toss some chopped vegetables, like squash, sweet potato, asparagus, or cauliflower, onto a baking sheet to roast in the oven at the same time.

THE RULES OF REFRIGERATION

- Leftovers need to be refrigerated within 2 hours of when they were served.
- Remember to refrigerate foods containing meats, dairy products, or prepared vegetables.
- Uncut fresh vegetables, like squash and tomatoes, do not need to be refrigerated.
